Gold on the Columbia River Bars.

We have mentioned the great success which has attended the experiment of mining on the bars of the Upper Columbia; and again refer to it, as we have additional information from a source which we think is worthy of entire credit.

Ringgold's bar is about 35 miles above Wallula, and the gold found there pays from $10 to $20 a day to each miner. This bar is nearly four miles in length. That at Priest Rapids has for a long time been known, and there is also a bar at Rock Island, about thirty miles above the Rapids, where the yield is from $15 to $30 a day.

New discoveries have very recently been made about two hundred miles above Fort Colville, near the lakes, from which parties have come in for supplies, and they state that $300 a day has been taken out by a single miner. Of course, such intelligence has caused a sudden rush in that direction.

Indeed, from all that we can learn, we are satisfied that along a space extending seven hundred miles on the river, there are numerous bars, where at the proper stage of water, the yield of gold can be abundant and enormous. Miners returning from Boise and other regions on account of the scarcity of water, would be wise, as it seems to us, if at this season, (for until the river rises, the bars will be exposed, becoming more so every day) they should give their attention to these new deposits of the precious metal, as the facilities for obtaining it are far greater than in the interior mines, while the expenses and hardships are far less. And as the time when it is found, is just when it is impossible to accomplish anything elsewhere, there cannot be much risk in making the experiment. The Chinese, we are told, who are so quick in somehow discovering "rich diggings," though seldom permitted to have the benefit of them, are flocking to the bars in crowds, and have already taken away immense amounts of dust in their quiet, crafty way, and sent it "home;" they are very anxious that "Melican man" shall let them alone, but their great success has at length betrayed the richness of their chances, and many Americans are turning their steps in that direction. There is abundant room however for thousands more.

Opinions of Douglas.—In 1860 the Springfield (Ill.) Register was a strong Douglas Democratic paper. It also went with him in 1861, and in the spring of that year published the following dispatches from Senator Douglas, while he was in Washington. The comments of the Register, as well as those of the St. Louis Herald, accompany the dispatches. The Register said:

We find in the St. Louis Democrat of yesterday, the following dispatch, which that paper says is in response to a dispatch sent Senator Douglas from St. Louis, inquiring as to his position in the present crisis:

"Washington, April 15, 1861.
To T. E. Courtenay—Without having been consulted, or indorsing any particular measure, I am for my country, and against all assailants. S. A. DOUGLAS."

Douglas, in common with the conservative men of the country generally, made every effort to effect a peaceable compromise to adjust the sectional dispute in a manner to prevent civil war. The ultra Republican party on the one side, and the Southern extremists on the other, resisted all propositions for amicable settlement. The result is, civil war is upon us. What is the duty of the patriot? To shrink from responsibility, and stand off, crying out with selfish imbecility, "It is none of our fight?" No! It is our fight. It is the fight of every true American citizen. For one, we do not intend to be placed in the attitude of blue light Federalism of 1812, which prated irresponsibility and "Jim Madison's war;" which was repeated by the sectionalists of 1846, that then it was "Jim Polk's war." The war is a a fact, and we are with our country.

The St. Louis Herald of April 19th, copies the above, and adds:

After reading the above dispatch, and entertaining a doubt in our own mind in regard to the true meaning of the dispatch, we declined publishing it until we had more authoritative information on the subject. We then sent the following dispatch to Judge Douglas:

"St. Louis, April 16, 1861.
To Judge S. A. Douglas, Washington City: Do you indorse Lincoln's war policy? Missouri will not. J. L. F."

We received the following answer:

"Washington, April 17th.
To James L. Faucet, Esq.—I deprecate war but if it must come, I am with my country and for my country, under all circumstances and in every contingency. Individual policy must be subordinate to the public safety. S. A. DOUGLAS."

The great Illinois Senator declared that he deprecated war; "but," he said, "if it must come, I am with my country and for my country under all circumstances and in every contingency." This was the language a patriot and statesman, whose great heart beat only for his country.

Express.—Messrs. Tracy & Co. have established a regular and permanent express from Portland to all points in the Boise country. Letters, packages, &c., are forwarded through direct every Monday morning.

Letter from Auburn.

[From our regular correspondent.]

Auburn, July 24th, 1863.

Our place is improving somewhat lately. People from Boise are returning here in some numbers. The Canal Company are urging on their work with all possible speed and we have a prospect of some water through their ditch the coming week.

There is a terrible mortality existing among the teams on the Boise road, and the dead cattle line the road from Burnt river to the Boise basin, so that more than two weeks since I was told by a gentleman returned from there that he was not out of sight of them the whole distance. Teaming is stopped beyond this point, and pack trains will have to do the carrying the remainder of the season. The alkali dust on Burnt and Snake rivers is deadly in its effects on the heated and toiling oxen, and sometimes they fall down dead when the yoke is taken off them. I heard of one train that lost fourteen yoke. Horses and mules seem to be less affected and in future the teams will have to unload at this point, or some place near, and pack trains convey the freight on to Boise.

The assessment of Baker county is now progressing, but will foot up rather small in consequence of the dull state of things existing in the mining line, and it will be difficult this year to pay off the existing debt and provide any means to run the machine until another fall.

While I write a pack train of forty animals is in sight, and loading up for the Owyhee mines. They are not speculators or traders, for I know the men myself, and they are miners from this vicinity who were among the earliest there, and having already made a little raise have come in here to lug in sufficient supplies for their own individual use.

These men report to me that Jourdan's creek, which is the principal one found thus far, is being mined on for some ten or twelve miles, and they tell me they have as good claims as they want. There has some excellent quartz rock come from there and these men say they found in the creek what they consider rich silver ore, but they have not found the lead. Several gulches have been found that pay well, but as yet the mining is being principally done in the vicinity of the earliest discoveries. As near as I can ascertain these mines are about 100 miles south of Boise, and the Owyhee river, with an utter disregard of old ideas concerning it and charts of it, comes from the south-east, thus throwing the newly discovered mines into the already-rich-enough Territory of Idaho, and giving Oregon decidedly the cold shoulder; though after all these explorers are not certain they are mining on the waters of the Owyhee at all, but say their creek may possibly be an original branch of Snake river.

From Boise there is nothing more than is usually looked for. Occasionally there is a desperado killed, and that much benefit conferred on humanity. They have got a way of killing one occasionally to keep up a healthy action in the social system; and after all, I am not sure but the Boise people will be able to keep under control the multitude of cut throats, thieves and copperheads in this manner, on the principle, probably, that blood letting is good for the social as well as the physical system. I am told that times are amazing rough over there, and all the spare roughs from the four quarters of the Pacific world have found a home in the Boise basin, with a few from Salt Lake thrown in.

Speaking of Salt Lake, the Boise folks get the news from the East by that route, far ahead of the time via California. An express runs from Salt Lake to Bannock in nine days, and they had the news of Lee's discomfiture and the fall of Vicksburg quite as soon as we did here. God grant they may not ere this have received some contrary news contradicting it. These times are so mercurial, and the telegraph so unreliable, and news hinges on so many doubts, that a man's patriotism cannot swallow the telegraphic draughts, sometimes so refreshing and effervescing, without danger of finding it grow stale on his political digestion afterwards.

New discoveries of silver ore and every other valuable in the mining line are continually reported from Boise, and also dull times in excess. Quite a gang of men have been hired there, I am told, to work on the Burnt river wagon road at $50 per month, and hundreds more could be procured at the same price. Many are leaving Boise, as they find it impossible to procure employment there, or to get water to work their claims.

A company drifting into the hill side in sight of my office, found yesterday indications of rich hill diggings, which will afford winter work to quite a number of people, if they prove good. This would be a good enough mining camp, if we only had a supply of water, which we will be pretty sure to have another year.

Letter from Eugene City.

Eugene City, Aug. 5, 1863.

Editor Oregonian:

It may strike you as a little singular that I should break my long and apparently slothful silence in the way of correspondence, with a Railroad item, plunging with almost locomotive speed in medias res. But it is so—your correspondent deems it important that your readers should be made aware of the fact that on yesterday, Mr. G. H. Belden, of this place, set out for Yreka accoutred for the work of making the preliminary survey of the proposed railroad from California to Oregon. Mr. Belden was chief clerk in the Land Office, and is well known to many of your readers; and as he depends very much for his compensation on the liberal (as of course they will be) contributions from this valley, it is hoped that an active effort will be put forward at once in behalf of the project, in all the principal towns. A subscription list was started here to-day, and starts well. Some evil minded persons have insisted that the Portlanders, having concluded that this project is of no advantage to Portland, in fact, that the road if built would be an injury to your town, would give the enterprise the cold shoulder and contribute nothing, even to the survey; but this can hardly be the case.

Appropos of railroads, let me add that it is more than rumored here that another steam boat enterprise is on foot, to put a new boat on the river to ply between Canemah and Eugene City, and that something like $10,000 of the stock has already been taken, and a fair share of that at this place. The citizens of this place seem generally to express themselves that the plan, if put in operation, will secure what we have so long needed—a regular boat to this place. And, of course, the People's Company will welcome any new scheme that promises to develop the resources and build up the trade of a country, and thus increase the commerce of the river, the great commercial artery of the Willamette valley. In fact, some of those who have taken stock here, are persons who have subscribed to the stock of the P. T. Company, and it can scarcely be doubted that, without exception, the whole country will rejoice to see the effort successful.

To-morrow, the State Teachers' Institute convenes at this place, and I note the arrival of some strangers for that purpose already in town. You will doubtless be furnished with an official report of the proceedings. If not, and you desire it, I can send you a brief abstract. Harvesting is progressing rapidly and crops are abundant. COMUS.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 1st.

New York, July 30.—The Tribune's Morris Island correspondence says: Our entire loss in the late assault will not fall short, according to the official report, of 1,517. The rebels claim to have buried 650. This extraordinary proportion of killed could only have been reached by indiscriminate slaughter. The officers and men of the Fifty fourth Massachusetts (colored), who were captured, will not be given up. Unofficial reports say the negroes will be sold into slavery. The officers were treated with unmeasured abuse. In fact all the wounded left in the hands of the rebels were treated most barbarously, amputation being performed by rebel surgeons in cases of the slightest gunshot wounds.

A Bermuda letter dated July 22d says the pirate Florida was still there, delayed by the refusal of the naval authorities to furnish her with coal. She then procured a supply from the rebel steamer Harriet Pinkney, and was to sail on that day.

Nassau dates to July 27th state that the steamer Beauregard had returned to that port from an unsuccessful attempt to run the blockade.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Admiral Porter, in a dispatch to the Navy Department says: "I am sure of raising the De Kalb, sunk by the explosion of torpedoes in the Yazoo river some time ago, but cannot say as yet what are her injuries. The guns have been got out."

As the citizens of Yazoo City did not take the trouble to warn him of torpedoes, which they had opportunities of doing, he had seized 3,000 bales of cotton to pay for the gunboat.

The National Intelligencer of this evening contains the following announcement:

The President has authorized the issuing of an order that it will be the policy and intention of the government to retaliate in kind for every case of ill treatment of our officers and men, black and white, by rebel authorities, by hanging for hanging, shooting for shooting, and imprisonment in every case where it is known that black men in the military service of the United States are taken prisoners and sold into slavery. Our military authorities will be instructed to select the rebel prisoners, and confine them to hard labor in some prison, there to remain until the blacks are liberated. The government maintains, and will exact promptly and to the letter, that the Federal uniform like the flag, must and shall be respected.

Cairo, Aug. 1.—A quantity of merchandise intended for the rebels at Little Rock, was seized yesterday at Charleston, Mo.

Dispatches from Memphis to July 30 say: By latest arrivals from below we learn that Johnston's forces are still on the wing towards the interior.

Steamer from Vicksburg, with 800 rebel prisoners, arrived to-day. They all tell the same tale of despondency, and declare their purpose to abandon the rebel cause.

The horse stealing Richardson is still carrying on his outrages with a high hand. Recently he caused to be read to the men of his command his order for the enforcement of the conscription, perfectly atrocious in sentiment. All males between 18 and 45 were to report at his place of rendezvous. Failing to comply, the conscript will be liable to be shot and his property carried off or destroyed, and his house burned.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—A Wilmington journal of late date says there is an organized movement on foot to contest Congressional elections in all districts, and that if the movement means anything it means reconstruction and submission. It warns citizens and soldiers that such is its nature and tendency, and will be its reality if successful.

Cincinnati, Aug. 1.—A rebel force of 500 took Stamford, Ky., yesterday, but were subsequently driven out by our forces with considerable loss. At last advices the rebels were hastily retreating in the direction of Cumberland.

New York, Aug. 1.—Advices from off Charleston state that no engagement had taken place since the assault on Fort Wagner. Our monitors were occasionally firing on both Wagner and Sumter. The idea of taking Fort Wagner by assault seems to be abandoned for the present.

The Tenth Connecticut occupy rifle pits within 250 yards of the fort.

In the case of the seizure of the Peterhoff and other vessels, Judge Betts delivered his opinion to claimants.

Steamer Belvidere, from Port Royal, passed Charleston bar on the forenoon of the 29th. She saw two monitors engaging Fort Wagner. Gen. Gilmore had succeeded in planting long line batteries within 300 yards of Wagner, and had also moved heavy siege guns within a mile and a quarter of Fort Sumter which were to open on Wednesday. The General feels confident of his ability to reduce Sumter.

The New Orleans Era of the 25th July says Brashear City surrendered on the 22d to the gunboat Satchem. We have no particulars.

A Baltimore correspondent of the Tribune says ex-Governor Aikin has been incarcerated in Libby prison for refusing to submit to the tyranny of Jeff. Davis.

From the Sandwich Islands.—We extract the following interesting intelligence from the Honolulu Commercial Advertiser:

Court News.—Yesterday at 11 o'clock, (June 19th,) His Majesty granted an audience to the Commissioner of the United States to take leave upon his recall, and to present his successor in office, His Excellency James McBride. There were present on this occasion His Royal Highness the Prince Kamehameha, the Acting Minister of Foreign Affairs, His Lordship, the Bishop of Honolulu, the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, several members of the Privy Council, and many officers of the Royal Household.

The Commissioner of the United States addressed His Majesty to the effect that he had been relieved of his official responsibilities by a letter of recall, and that in requesting this audience, he had wished to express once more the kind feelings he felt, and has always endeavored to manifest towards His Majesty and the Government of His Majesty, and also to introduce his successor Mr. James McBride.

Mr. McBride having been presented in form, addressed His Majesty in fitting terms of salutation, the King in reply was pleased to say:

Mr. McBride—I have much pleasure in receiving this letter from the President of the United States, and in welcoming you as the Representative of the Government of the United States. Accredited as you are, your position among your diplomatic brethren will be high, indeed the highest; and in the fact of the President desiring to be represented here by a Minister Resident, I flatter myself I see an intention to do honor to me and my Government.

I beg you to make known to the President the satisfaction I experience in receiving through you those expressions of kind feeling and cordial good wishes for myself and the Queen which you have just declared on his part, and I can assure you that no wish is dearer to my heart than that perfect amity may exist between our two countries, and that the intercourse of the two may be mutually advantageous.

Believing as I do that the President has not sent you to this Court without feeling a certainty, that in you all his kind feelings will find an able interpreter, I look forward with pleasure to your future intercourse with me and my Government.

The Minister of the United States then introduced his Secretary of Legation, Mr. John L. Barnard, the Rev. Rufus Anderson, D. D., of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Mr. Wm. Seton Ogden and Mr. Henry B. Auchincloss.

We notice in the San Francisco Bulletin the mention of the arrival there of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Dryer.

Patriotism of General Sickles.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from the battle field of Gettysburg, has the following:

When the gallant General fell his staff ran to his assistance and bore him off the field. He was struck just below the knee by a shell, and his leg so badly shattered that it hung merely by a shred. He was carried to a wheat field in the rear, where amputation was performed under the influence of chloroform, as previously described. The loss of blood, combined with physical prostration, caused him to remain insensible for some time, but on rallying he discovered your correspondent by his side, and recognized him with a "God bless you," and again sank away. Rallying again, he looked in my face and said, feebly, "Cook, in this war a man is but a cipher. God rules and directs all for the best."

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever he found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, what ever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eliminates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

DENTAL CARDS.—Certificates received by Dr. W. KOEHLER from his former places of residence:
This recommendation is due Dr. W. KOEHLER, a Practical Dentist, for his skill, thorough professional attainments, and complete knowledge of the science of Dentistry. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Koehler to all who may need or desire his professional services. J. S. TITUS, M. D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1859.
I have known Dr. KOEHLER as a practical Dentist in this place for some time past. He is thoroughly versed in his profession, and I would cordially recommend him to those desirous of obtaining the services of an educated and skillful Dentist. JOHN COOKE, M. D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1859.
Mokelumne Hill, August 30, 1860.
Having had occasion to employ several operators to construct a set of artificial teeth for me, but without having derived any benefit from them, I at last consulted Dr. W. KOEHLER, to whom I gave my case for another trial. He made me a full set of teeth, which I am now wearing with all the comfort and satisfaction desired, and I would recommend him to all in need of the services of a skillful dentist. W. McFADDEN, M. D.

Thanksgiving.—Thursday last was observed as a day of thanksgiving and p by the people of Portland, in conformi the proclamation issued by the presi Divine service was performed in the mo at the various places of worship, and c tions were made in aid of the sanitary In the evening there was a numerous att ance at the M. E. church, and, after sin and prayer, eloquent and patriotic addre were delivered by Governor Gibbs, Re C. Lippincott, of Olympia, W. T., Rev. T Pearne and Rev. John Flynn, of W Walla. In the afternoon a party of ex sionists chartered the steamboat Leviat and, accompanied by the efficient and obliging Mechanics' Band, took a trip d the river as far as Swan Island. The p then returned and proceeded to the W House and Milwaukie, where they were thusiastically welcomed by the ladies. excursionists had a general good time, all expressed themselves delighted with t pleasant sail.

Arrival.—The steamer Julia arrived f the Cascades last evening with a large nu ber of passengers, who brought with the considerable amount of gold dust. Upwa of $40,000 in dust was received by We Fargo & Co.

The Weather yesterday was exceedin pleasant and mild—just the kind required mature and ripen the fruit and grain. In evening, at three o'clock, the thermome indicated 82° in the shade.

Recorder's Court.—No case of public terest has been brought before the Record during the past few days. Is there anoth city in the world, of equal population a business, with so few criminal cases on reco as Portland.

A Valuable Brick.—Messrs. L. C. F ler & Co. yesterday showed us a large br of solid gold, which they had just purchas It assayed 762 fine, is valued at $4,071 and weighed 258½ ounces. Though stau advocates of total abstinence, we should object to having that brick in our hat. L. Fuller & Co. pay the highest market pri for every description of gold, silver, &c.

Portland and Milwaukie Macadamiz Road.—We understand that the above ro will be opened for public travel on Mond next, on which day the steam ferry boat w commence its trips opposite Milwaukie. T mail coach will, on and after that day, p to and from this city by that route, th shortening the time, as is supposed and hope between here and Oregon City nearly hour. Success to the new road.

Portland Academy and Female Se nary.—We understand that the Fall Ter at this Institution, will commence on Mond next, under the charge of Mr. and Mrs. O. Frambes. The building has been thorough overhauled and refitted, and the grounds tast fully and comfortably arranged. It is the i tention of the trustees and teachers to mal the facilities for acquiring an education at th school, second to none in the State. Mr. an Mrs. F. will be assisted by competent teacher For particulars, see advertisement in anothe column.

News! News!—Mr. Chas. Barrett, at hi periodical and book store, in Starr's Building has a fine assortment of pictorials, magazine and newspapers, just received by mail in ad vance of the steamer. Everybody will war the picture of Gen. Meade, which, thoug having some resemblance, is by no means fair picture of the gallant commander of th army of the Potomac.

Theatrical.—The beautiful drama of th "Dead Heart, or the Destruction of the Bas tile," was performed to a tolerable house o Thursday night, and was rendered in a mar ner that reflected the highest credit upo the manager and his efficient company. M Waldron's "Robert Landry" was an excellen representation, and fully sustained the envia ble reputation gained by Mr. W. in his pre vious rendering of this fine character in Sa Francisco and other places. The other cha acters were well sustained, Mr. Myers, a "Toupet," creating much merriment by hi humorous personation of that facetious ind vidual.

Owing to the favorable reception of the fin drama of "Fraud and its Victims, or th Poor of London," on its first representation this theater, a week ago, the manager pur poses reproducing it this evening, for th benefit of those who did not witness the pre vious performance. We can assure our read ers that this is one of the most effectiv dramas of the present age, and every admire of the legitimate drama would do well to se it to night.

Contributions to the Sanitary Fund.— The following receipts are acknowledged From the Conemah Ladies' Sanitary Aid S ciety, in coin, $97 25; from Rev. Thom Condon, Dalles City, $38 50 in coin and $ in currency, collected in his church o Thanksgiving Day; from Mrs. E. Ainsworth Treasurer of the Portland Ladies' Sanitar Aid Society, $272 in coin and $42 in curren cy, collected on Thanksgiving Day.

Truth

The following beautiful illustration of the simplicity and power of truth was related by one who was present in one of our high courts when it occurred.

A little girl nine years of age, was offered as a witness against a prisoner who was on trial for a felony committed in her father's house.

'Now Emily' said the counsel for the prisoner, upon her being offered as a witness, 'I desire to know if you understand the nature of an oath?'

'I don't know what you mean,' was the simple answer.

'There, your honor,' said the counsel addressing the court, 'is anything further necessary to demonstrate the validity of my objection? This witness should be rejected. She does not comprehend the nature of an oath.'

'Let me see,' said the Judge. 'Come here, my daughter.'

Assured by the kind manner and tone of the judge, the child stepped forward to him looking confidingly up in his face with a calm, clear eye, and in a manner so artless and frank, that it went straight to the heart.

'Did you ever take an oath?' inquired the judge.

The little child stepped back with a look of horror and the red blood mantled in a blush all over her face and neck as she answered:

'No, sir.'

She thought he intended to inquire if she had ever blasphemed.

'I do not mean that,' said the judge, who saw her mistake; 'I mean, were you ever a witness before?'

'No, sir, I was never in court before,' was the answer.

He handed her the open Bible.

'Do you know that book, my daughter?'

She looked at it, and answered

'Yes, sir, it is the Bible.'

'Do you ever read it,' he asked.

'Yes, sir, every evening.'

'Can you tell me what the Bible is?'

'It is the Word of the great God.'

'Well, place your hand upon this Bible and listen to what I say,' and he repeated slowly the oath usually administered to witnesses.

'Now,' said the Judge, 'you have sworn as a witness; will you tell me what will befall you if you do not tell the truth?'

'I shall be put in prison,' answered the child.

'Anything else?' asked the judge.

'I shall never go to heaven,' she replied.

'How do you know this?'

The child took the Bible, and turning rapidly to the chapter containing the Commandments, pointed to the injunction, 'Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.' 'I learned that before I could read.'

'Has any one talked to you about your being a witness in court against this man?' inquired the judge.

'Yes, sir,' she replied, 'my mother heard they wanted me to be a witness, and last night she called me to her room and asked me to tell her the Ten Commandments, and then we kneeled down together, and she prayed that I might understand how wicked it was to bear false witness against my neighbor, and that God would help me, a little child, to tell the truth as it was before him. And when I came up here with mother, she kissed me and told me to remember the Ninth Commandment, and that God would hear every word that I said.'

'Do you believe this?' asked the judge, while a tear glistened in his eye, and his lip quivered with emotion.

'Yes, sir,' said the child, with a voice and manner that showed her conviction of its truth was perfect.

'God bless you, my child,' said the judge, 'you have a good mother. This witness is competent,' he continued. 'Were I on trial for my life, I would pray God for such witnesses as this. Let her be examined.'

She told her story with the simplicity of a child, as she was, but there was a directness about it which carried conviction of its truth to the heart. She was rigidly cross examined. The counsel plied her with infinite and ingenious questioning, but she varied from her first statement nothing. The truth as spoken by that little child was sublime. Falsehood and perjury had preceded her testimony. The prisoner had intrenched himself in lies till he deemed himself impregnable. Witnesses had falsified facts in his favor, and villainy had manufactured for him a sham defense. But before her testimony, falsehood was scattered like chaff. The little child, for whom a mother had prayed for strength to be given her to speak the truth as it was before God broke the cunning device of matured villainy to pieces like the potter's vessel. The strength that her mother prayed for was given her, and the sublime and terrible simplicity—terrible, I mean to the prisoner and his associates—with which she spoke was like a revelation from God himself.—Unitarian Herald.

THE DRAFT IN CALIFORNIA.—A Washington correspondent writes as follows upon this subject. It is likely that it is equally true as to this State.

There seems to be some uncertainty here as to the policy to be pursued in California touching the draft. If it were likely that there would be a large number of persons on the Pacific coast who would take advantage of the $300 clause, and thus help to raise the fund for the pay of volunteering returned soldiers, there is no doubt but the draft would be made in all of the Pacific States, but as Californians are believed to be a fighting race, it is thought that many will accept the draft, and that the rest will find no difficulty in furnishing substitutes if it is once known that the men so raised are to go into active service on this side of the continent. Should you have any disturbances in the State or upon the border, from Indians or Secessionists, the draft will be made anyhow, and the enrollment will take place whether the conscription is made or not.

GARIBALDI'S FAME.—To show how the world is given to hero worship, it is stated that, since 1859, no less than 150 steamers have touched at the island of Caprera, where formerly no vessel ever stopped, and more than 16,000 persons have landed. Four Neapolitan vessels bear the name of Garibaldi.

The general is godfather to 1,508 children; 2,000 boys have received his name. During the last three years he has received presents of the value of $10,000. The majority of them are agricultural implements, chiefly from England. During the same period he has refused other gifts, representing a value of nearly a million. Garibaldi is honorary burgess of 60 cities and towns, and honorary president of 120 associations. He has 21 swords of honor, of which 11 have been sent from abroad. Since 1859, 300 addresses of devotedness have been sent to him. When Garibaldi went to the island it was worth nothing, but, with the improvements he has made, he now derives a revenue of nearly one thousand dollars.

CHERRY PECTORAL, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

[illegible] 1855.
DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints.
EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., [illegible]
BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.
SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.
DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.
Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the everyday complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.
